Safety Information

About Photosensitive Seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these photosensitive epileptic seizures while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms - children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures.

The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by sitting farther from the television screen, using a smaller television screen, playing in a well-lit room, and not playing when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing. Other Important Health and Safety Information. The Xbox Instruction Manual contains important health and safety information that you should read and understand before using this software.

Avoid Damage to Your Television

Do not use with certain televisions. Some televisions, especially front- or rear-projection types, can be damaged if any video games, including Xbox games, are played on them. Static images presented during the normal course of game play may burn in to the screen, causing a permanent shadow of the static image to appear at all times, even when video games are not being played. Similar damage may occur from static images created when placing a video game on hold or pause. Consult your television owner's manual to determine if video games can be safely played safely on your set. If you are unable to find this information in the owner's manual, contact your television dealer or the manufacturer to determine if video games can be played safely on your set.

Unauthorised copying, reverse engineering, transmission, public performance, rental, pay for play, or circumvention of copy protection is strictly prohibited.

RATINGS

HOW MUCH CAN YOU TAKE?

Note that we've taken the time to distinguish between Fetish and Hardcore scenes. Stick with Fetish until you're sure you can handle Hardcore. All of these are shot in Carcer City; it's quickly becoming the white heat capital of the world, so expect only the highest production values (you won't find any of that Eastern European imitation crap at Valiant).

★★★★★ Ratings are simple, 1 to 5 stars, 5 being best. Movies with a 5-star rating have loads of brutality crammed into as little space as possible. Soul-shattering, mind-searing acts of violence one after another. 5-star videos are the ultimate Valiant products, scenes with 5-stars unlock the most bonus features.

FEATURED VIDEOS FROM DIRECTOR:
LIONEL STARKWEATHER

"BORN AGAIN"

New talent JAMES EARL CASH stars in STARKWEATHER'S "BORN AGAIN", in which our hero has been brought back from the dead. Unbeknownst to the public, CASH's execution was all a ruse, thanks to the corrupt Darkwoods Penitentiary staff. The "lethal injection" he received was nothing more than a strong sedative. In one of the first scenes, CASH wakes up from his "sleep" and finds himself in a locked room. Over the intercom, STARKWEATHER instructs CASH to put on a wireless earpiece and tells him: "Now only you can hear me and that's the way you're going to want it because I'm your way out of this mess...Do exactly as I say and I promise this will be over before the night is out". In the next scene, we find CASH in the abandoned section of Carcer City, where the streets are patrolled by a gang (THE HOODS), who have been hired by Starkweather to hunt CASH down. It's a night of kill or be killed for the delight of the Director...STARKWEATHER. This is the first scene of the STARKWEATHER collection, definitely a must have for any fan.

"WHITE TRASH"

In STARKWEATHER'S fourth production since the unfortunate incident that ruined his career in Hollywood, rising star JAMES EARL CASH is dropped in an abandoned junkyard. Here he is faced with a new gang called the "SKINZ". The SKINZ are more dangerous and violent than any gang we have seen CASH encounter previously. The rules are simple, he must follow Starkweather's directions, kill a few hunters along the way and more importantly...stay alive! This task is easier said than done...especially when four SKINZ are chasing him down with metal baseball bats.

"VIEW OF INNOCENCE"

Set in a run down and long vacated Carcer mall, STARKWEATHER regular, JAMES EARL CASH is faced with a notoriously dangerous and ruthless band of hunters...the "INNOCENTZ". No real details are known about this group except that STARKWEATHER hired the gang from somewhere in the East Los Albos area. In "View of Innocence", STARKWEATHER directs CASH to run "errands" around the mall while at the same time fighting with the Innocentz. With great cinematography, STARKWEATHER has again outdone himself for the enjoyment of his audiences.

"MOUTH OF MADNESS"

What could be more befitting for a STARKWEATHER picture than having it set in a mental asylum. In "Mouth of Madness", veteran star JAMES EARL CASH is faced with a new breed of hunter! ... Known as the "SMILEYS", these perverse lunatics are not only bordering on the edge of sanity...but add firearms to the mix and it's the perfect recipe for some great footage. The plot of the scene is simple... If CASH does as STARKWEATHER directs, he might just survive with his sanity and possibly his life.

A COMBINATION OF SOME GREAT ACTION FOOTAGE ALONG WITH A TOUCH OF LUNACY MAKES THIS SCENE ONE OF STARKWEATHER'S BEST.

WIRE: Used for strangling opponents, it's silent and quite deadly. This weapon can be seen throughout Starkweather's films. A simple mode of killing, the weapon is made of two handles joined by a razor sharp wire. Used by sneaking up behind a victim and pulling the wire over his head and onto his neck. The wire squeezes the life out of him. Own the signature weapon that is seen throughout Starkweather's features. - $75

GLASS SHARD: When you see your victim and you have no weapons, you have to become a bit inventive. With quick thinking and a steady hand, a PIECE OF GLASS becomes a deadly weapon that can pierce your victim's jugular. THESE are the originals that were used in many of Starkweather's features. - $34

PLASTIC BAG: To you it's an everyday household item, it holds groceries, or even your take-out dinner, but to a hardened hunter/killer, it's another weapon in his arsenal. The official Starkweather bags are now here, own yours today at this incredible price. - $15/per or 3 for $30

OFFICIAL HUNTER WEAPONS

CLEAVER: The preferred weapon of the "Smileys", this handy tool is weighted to cut through meat in a single motion. Order yours today and we'll throw in a sharpener for your cleaver. - $100

SIGNATURE MOVES OF STARKWEATHER'S HUNTERS

INSANITY 101

You've seen this one before, where the hunted just stops, falls to the floor drooling and gibbering incoherently, convinced he actually has gone to hell. It's one of our favourite ways to watch scum die.

A fine art perfected by: Innocentz

"I guarantee absolute satisfaction - 100% of the time." - Mr. Nasty

BRUTAL GANG BEATING

Chased into a corner by six white supremacists, then quickly and violently beaten to death with blunt weapons. Pure vitriol, venom and rancour spewing from all sides, there's no mistaking this for a peaceful crossing over. Half the fun is watching the anger on the faces of the thugs after they realise they killed their runner too quickly.

No one does it better than: The Skinz

STALK, BAG, STUFF

Laying in wait, hidden by a blood-matted ghillie and dripping dirty sweat onto a custom tranq rifle built for big game, patience is his middle name. The scum runner takes off out of a shadowy spot, making a break for a hole in the fence. THUNK the tufted dart finds its mark in his thigh, and the runner stumbles and slows. Out of the underbrush creep his fellow hunters, surrounding the animal and unsheathing their machetes. He's not quite big enough to stuff, but there's plenty of meat on him for Grandma to salt & smoke.

Who else but: Wardogs

THE BLANK CANVAS

Only one gang takes post-mortem violence to this extreme. Sure, they're frighteningly intelligent, seem to communicate without actually speaking, and hunt human waste better than almost anyone, including the Wardogs. They're in and out of the shadows, alternately mumbling insanities and screaming invectives; totally, completely out of their minds. But when they finally catch a runner, they relish the act of carving flesh, scraping bone, gouging organs and splattering blood.

Has to be: The Smileys

TACTICS USED

by Starkweather's favourite leading man:
JAMES EARL CASH

Keep an eye out for these enterprising moves highlighted in scenes from this catalogue; they separate the wheat from the chaff.

TACTIC 1: In a scene made famous in "DOORWAY TO HELL", Cash presses up against the wall and punches it (A button or X button), then creeps into the shadows waiting for the ignorant hunter to investigate. When the hunter is within reach, Cash steps out of the shadows, sneaks up from behind and performs an execution (A or X button) for the cameras. Cash has to be careful though... if he makes any sudden noises this will alert the hunter to his presence.

TACTIC 2: In "WHITE TRASH", Cash acquires a nail gun from a freshly killed hunter. From long range, Cash is unable to perform shots to the head, so he aims for the body, (auto-aim hold down Left Trigger) with a better chance of a higher hit rate. However, if confident in his ability to hit the mark from a distance, Cash may choose to take the risk (tap Right Thumbstick button while holding Left Trigger, the cursor will change to a dot and allow you to free aim).

TACTIC 3: In Starkweather's "FUELLED BY HATE", we see Cash use metal bats and crowbars as weapons. In one of his signature moves, Cash is pressed up against a brick wall and waits while a hunter turns the corner, Cash then raises his weapon and when the time is appropriate, he pops out with a swing (A or X button). While rarely lethal, it was a great way to get the jump on unwary foes.

"I guarantee absolute satisfaction - 100% of the time." - Mr. Nasty

TACTIC 4: Cash made this move famous in many of Starkweather's productions and no one will ever be able to copy it successfully. Laying in wait behind an unsuspecting victim, Cash raises his arm high and holds at the ready (press and hold A or X button), waiting to deliver the finishing blow. The hasty versions (white arrows) were nice enough, the violent ones (yellow) were quite tasty, but the gruesome (red) were what you paid top dollar for. Maybe he'll work us up a new level, if Starkweather can convince him to crank it up a notch.

TACTIC 5: Audio diversions are key to Cash's arsenal of survival skills: hitting trashcans, dumpsters, boxes, anything and everything that makes a sound to lure the hunters into a vulnerable position. In Starkweather's "WHITE TRASH", Cash is in hiding while four Skinz are on the prowl looking for a kill. Hiding behind a dumpster, Cash smacks it with a metal bat (press A or X button) and darts off to hide in the shadows. One of them comes to examine the noise, scratches his head in a confused manner. Cash then quietly creeps out of the shadows, sneaks up behind the hunter and performs an execution (press A or X button) to the delight of the Director.

TACTIC 6: It pays to be neat. Take a tip from Cash as he makes a kill and then picks up his victim (press Y button) and takes the carcass to a less visible area and dumps the body (press Y button again to drop the body). The hunters are smarter than they look...if they find a dead comrade they are going to be pissed. It might be a pain in the ass but better safe than sorry.... and sorry is usually in the form of a brutal death.

TACTIC 7: Another tactic perfected by Cash is the surprise attack. In "MOUTH OF MADNESS", Cash (sawed-off in hand) would stand right in front of a door, aim (Left trigger) kick the sucker open (A button), then unload onto the inhabitants of the room (A button again). There is usually more than one hunter in a room but believe you me, the first one will definitely have an early night.

TACTICS USED

by Starkweather's favourite leading man:

JAMES EARL CASH

TACTIC 8: In Starkweather's "FUELLED BY HATE", Cash must use the things around his environment to his advantage. Whether it's operating a crane (push Y button when next to the machine), or grabbing a tank of gas and dropping it off at a desired location (press Y button to pick up and again to release) - Sometimes weapons just aren't enough.

TACTIC 9: With a little bit of extra equipment Cash has been known to shout and curse at the hunters as another form of audio distraction (Add an Xbox® Live™ Headset and talk into the receiver).

TACTIC 10: At times, Cash needs to grab a hunter to make sure he doesn't escape and that his blows land on target (this signature move is simply called the grapple and is easily performed by pressing the A button and the X button at the same time). This move works when Cash is barehanded or holding a melee weapon.

TACTIC 11: Another Starkweather staple, the empty whiskey bottle is used throughout his films doubling as bait and as a weapon. Watch this classic trick in all your favourite scenes: hunters lured down dark alleyways by tossed bottles never gets old. Some adventurous runners walk right up and smash a hunter in the face with it (press A button). Usually not a lethal blow but man, what great footage.

TACTIC 12: Much like the whisky bottle, the brick (A button to throw) is used throughout Starkweather's work as both a lure and a weapon. Hunters smashed in the face with bricks never die but stumble and see stars.

Currently part of Mr. Starkweather's personal defence force, you may have seen me along with some of my associates in many of his features. If you feel like someone is watching you or your enemies are getting brasher....I'm your solution. References available. MESSAGE BOX 247

CCPD SWAT MEMBER: Ex-personal body guard, expert in all weapons, explosives, and Tae Kwon Do. Even though I'm a decorated member of the Carcer City SWAT, it doesn't pay my bills. I am now looking for a full time position in VIP protection. References are available. MESSAGE BOX 763

PROFESSIONAL BOUNTY HUNTER/ENFORCER

(Innocentz member since 1998): You may have seen me in Starkweather's film "View of Innocence". I'm looking for some freelance work. Are you trying to track somebody down? Someone who hasn't paid their debts, or a person that wronged you somehow...well I can find them, and make them PAY. I don't stop until I catch my prey. MESSAGE BOX 987

EX-CCPD SNIPER: Ex-CCPD sniper instructor will travel anywhere, anytime. Miss my mark...you get your money back. I specialise in stalking and eradicating specified targets. No job is too small or too big. If you need someone taken care of from a distance...leave a message. I leave no trace. MESSAGE BOX 584

HOOD: You may have seen our tags around Carcer City, that's right the Hoods....your friendly neighbourhood thugs. You need to pull a hospital job on somebody, got an old teacher that still pisses you off after all these years, did that cop actually give you a parking ticket? Give my associates and me a call and we will personally fix any problems you may have. MESSAGE BOX 673
